

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTICE.

Mr. Walter Rye having kindly offered the following Index of Norfolk Inquisitions to the Norfolk and Norwich Archæological Society, the Committee has decided to print it as a continuation of the Calendar of Norfolk Records, by Mr. Walford Selby, issued to the Members in 1886. That Volume was called Volume I., and was to have been followed by another also compiled by him. His lamented death, however, brought his work to an unexpected termination.

PREFACE.

THE four series of Inquisitions to the Norfolk entries to which I print a collected index in this volume, consist of :—

- (1) The Tower Series, of which very inaccurate calendars, giving the names and localities only, were printed by the Government many years ago, in four volumes folio, abounding in errors, arising chiefly from the compilation of the calendars being entrusted to men who had no special knowledge of the place-names of each county, and who, therefore, made very many natural mistakes in reading them.
- (2) The Chancery, or, as it is sometimes called, The Rolls Series, which is really only a continuation of the last ; but the calendar to which remained unprinted until the late Mr. Selby printed it for our Society, in his "Norfolk Records" (1886).
- (3) The Exchequer Series ; calendars of which were first printed in the 10th Report of the Deputy Keeper, from which Mr. Selby reprinted them in the volume just mentioned.
- (4) The Wards and Liveries, or, as it is sometimes called, The Court of Wards Series, the list—we can hardly call it an index—of which was first printed by Mr. Selby in the same volume.

Besides these there is the series belonging to the Duchy of Lancaster, which contains some relating to Norfolk, but the people named in them are not, with a few exceptions, of the same class as those in the other series.

However useful it was to have printed calendars of Nos. 2 and 4, there was still the great drawback that No. 1 was only alphabetically and not lexicographically arranged, and that No. 3 was not arranged in index form at all, but under the names of the different escheators, and that much of No. 4 was not arranged at all. Consequently, before one could find out what inquisitions there were relating to any one family, one had to search—

- (1) One, or rather four, printed volumes of calendar in No. 1, with four of fairly good lexicographical index.
- (2) One alphabetical list.
- (3) One mass of absolutely unindexed matter.
- (4) One alphabetical list, and some more wholly unindexed matter.

Or, in all, no less than eight searches had to be made, two of them being very long and troublesome.

Finding it absolutely necessary to have for my own use in my edition of the Norfolk Visitations, which I am about to issue for the Harleian Society, to have a more consultable work, I have arranged the scattered entries in the following pages, so one opening shows all the entries relating to one family, and the exact reference needed to write for the document—for example, in writing for an Exchequer inquisition, it is unluckily necessary to give the escheator's name, as a guide to the bundle in which it is to be found.

A somewhat lengthy apprenticeship to the study of Norfolk surnames, has enabled me to correct many errors of the various calendarers, who having no special knowledge of Norfolk surnames, have often made sad hashes of them; i.e., reading Candewell for Caudewell, Carnell for Carvell, Divileston for Durlleston, Hervle for Kervile, Bonycher for Bouycher, and Hephham for Hexham.

Other readings can often be guessed at, e.g., Blyant is probably Bryant, and Brodoocke, Broderick.

Mis-spellings I have tried to bring back to their proper places, e.g., Genison should be Jennison, Jillet should be Gillett, but in every case I have put cross references to the original or corrected entry.

In the groupings, I have throughout adopted the natural or usually adopted spelling, the archaic spelling with "y" being altered by me throughout to "i," wherever the spelling has not become quite fixed otherwise, as in Wynne, &c.

Thus "Barney" and "Burney" will be found under Berney, Bullen under Boleyn, Gurling under Girling, Skarburgh under Scarburgh, Skarlet under Scarlet, Hubart and Hubbard under Hobart, and Hoogan and Huggon under Hogan. By the way, the aristocratic-sounding surname of Gurdon now turns out to come, not from Scotch Gordon, but from Gording or Gourding.

While working out so many surnames, the variorum readings have suggested several derivations for well-known Norfolk names, for example, Caley is, no doubt, the Norman de Cailly; Mealing, de Meauling; Money, le Moigne; Limmer, Lomnour; Nunn, de Noion; Pecke, de Pecche; Pratt, de Pratis; and Rowse, de Rous.

"Well-beloved" is probably the "Bienamour" we find here, and Heylett the diminutive of Hale or Heyle, while Ropkyn seems similarly Roperkyn; and our well-known Norfolk surname of Riches is Richards or Richers.

The interchange of initials is noteworthy; Powditch is clearly Bowditch, and Twyer, Dwyer. Both of these would, of course, be missed by a searcher who looked for them under their proper initials, as would Nevette by a searcher for Knevett.

The double names, which seem in most cases trade-names tacked on to patronymics, are interesting, and a complete list of them should be made out, as it might help many an aspiring Smith or Baker out of his genealogical mire. Among them are Ladd, alias Baker; Lomb, alias Baker ; and Warren, alias Baker. Some of these aliases, however, are variorum readings, as Kendall, alias Tindall ; Cremer, alias Skrme ; Sparke, alias Parker.

The result of a careful study of these lists is very instructive. They give an accurate idea as to whether a family really was of the greater gentry in the old days or not ; for if a family held any quantity of land worth having, its name must be found here.

Searchers should note that from Richard I. to Henry VI. the printed folio calendars of the Chancery Series give the names of the places at which the dead men held land, and the "Calendarium Genealogicum," which covers the reigns of Henry III. and Edward I., gives the actual words of the finding as to the heir ; so that for the first two reigns the country student, who has not the chance of looking up the manuscript, can, by combining the facts in the two calendars, practically get the substance of the inquisition, or something like it.
